RESOURCES FOR EARLY CAREER FACULTY
(PROMOTION FROM ASSISTANT TO ASSOCIATE WITH TENURE)

Introduction

- At MSU, faculty are expected to be both active scholars and student-focused. They must demonstrate substantial scholarship and ability to promote learning through our on-campus and off-campus education and research programs.
- MSU must improve continuously. To do so requires that academic personnel decisions must result in a progressively stronger faculty – a faculty who meet continuously higher standards that assures enhanced quality within a national and international context. Individual personnel actions for tenure recommendation should result in the improvement of academic unit quality.
- Assessment of faculty performance should recognize the importance of both teaching and research and their extension beyond the borders of the campus as part of the outreach dimension.
- The achievement and performance level required must be competitive with faculties of leading research-intensive, land-grant universities of international scope. (comparison is important)
- Details regarding the Reappointment, Promotion and Tenure process is provided in an annual letter sent out to chairs and directors in fall semester. The basic content of that letter can be found at:
  http://www.hr.msu.edu/documents/facacadhandbooks/facultyhandbook/recommendations.htm

Timeline for RP&T - What Happens and When?

1. Initial Appointments

- The normal initial appointment for an Assistant Professor is for 4 years followed by a second 3 year probationary appointment.
- If at any time during the two probationary appointments, an assistant professor is promoted to associate professor, tenure is awarded and there are no further probationary appointments.
- New Associate Professors are typically appointed for one 4-year probationary appointment, but these appointments may range from 2-5 years.
- All tenure system probationary appointments begin on August 16 (following the initial appointment in the tenure track) regardless of when during the calendar year the appointment is effective.

2. Early Promotion or Tenure

- Early promotion/tenure is based on an exceptional record of accomplishments at MSU that is based on department/school/college and University criteria. Early promotion/tenure is reserved for extraordinary cases.
- An assistant professor without tenure may request promotion to associate professor with tenure prior to the conclusion of the stipulated probationary appointment period. A negative decision on such a request does not preclude consideration for promotion at the normal time.
Early promotion and tenure for an assistant professor can be requested – faculty should seek guidance from their unit administrator, unit promotion and tenure committee members or mentor. Review any unit or college evaluation criteria for promotion to see if your professional accomplishments match the expectations for promotion and tenure.

3. Extension of Tenure System Probationary Appointment

The tenure system probationary appointment is extended automatically for one year for the following reasons:

- Leaves of absence with or without pay that are one semester to twelve months. Changes in appointment to 50% time or less for one year.
- Upon request from a faculty member on approved leave of absence (paid or unpaid) for twelve weeks or longer for reasons related to the birth or adoption of a child. Automatic extensions for this reason are limited to two separate one-year extensions.
- Immigration/visa status that does not permit the award of tenure for candidates who have been recommended for tenure.
- An extension recommended as an outcome of a hearing and/or appeal conducted pursuant to the Faculty Grievance Policy.
- Additionally, extensions of the probationary appointment may be requested from the University Committee on Faculty Tenure (UCFT). These requests may be due to reasons related to childbirth, adoption, the care of an ill and/or disabled child, spouse, or parent; personal illness; to receive prestigious awards, fellowships, and/or special assignment opportunities; or other such serious constraints. Who do you ask: First your unit administrator.

4. When do you develop your reappointment, promotion or tenure materials

- Download Form D http://www.hr.msu.edu/forms/faculty_forms/FormInfoRRPTPages.htm
- Start organizing your productivity measures from the beginning of your appointment
- Begin to review the materials needed to be submitted near the end of the academic year before the year when materials are to be submitted for reappointment/promotion.
- In the spring, talk with the chair or unit administrator about what to include in the packet and when the materials are due in the unit.

The University’s timetable for RP&T is distributed to units in August, and includes a list of faculty scheduled for review. At that time the Dean’s Office informs units when packets are due from the departments. http://www.hr.msu.edu/promotion/facacadstaff/FacGuideTenure.htm#Time

Also begin to plan writing the reflective essay.

- Units define their own deadlines for submission of RP&T materials; usually the packets are due to the departmental committee in early fall.
- Departments must submit their input and recommendations for all RP&T packets to the college early in the spring semester.
- In March and April, Deans meet with Associate Provost/Associate Vice President for Academic Human Resources, Senior Associate Provost and the Vice President for Research and Graduate Students to review each RP&T recommendation.
Provost decisions are announced to deans usually by the end of April. Deans notify chairs and directors of actions taken after receiving notice from the Office of the Provost. Lists of reappointments and promotion involving award of tenure are forward to President and Board of Trustees for their approval in June. Notification of final approval for actions is sent to deans who notify chairs and directors who notify the faculty in mid to late June.

Preparing Materials for RP&T – A Checklist of Best Practices for Faculty
For details see Faculty Guide for Reappointment, Promotion and Tenure Review: http://www.hr.msu.edu/promotion/facacadstaff/FacGuideTenure.htm

______ Document EVERYTHING – from the beginning of your appointment -- If it isn’t documented it didn’t happen!!!

______ Set up a system to record your professional activities and accomplishments in systematic way.

In your document demonstrate:

- Excellence
- Vitality
- Impact
- Synergies
- Growth and Trajectory

______ Review contents of Annual Review letters from prior years and be sure to highlight improvements in areas of concern.

______ Review examples of RP&T packages submitted previously. Your unit administrator may be able to provide such materials.

If you are jointly appointed in more than one department or college:

______ You should meet regularly (at least once a year) with the appropriate administrators in the department/unit in which you have a minor appointment. You should request input, ideally in writing, regarding progress related to your minor appointment in that unit.

______ Your RP&T materials will be reviewed by your primary department/college. Only that college will make the final recommendation.

______ Your RP&T materials may be shared with the unit/college in which you have a minor appointment. Input will be requested by the lead department/college before developing their recommendation.

______ If you have an appointment in a unit such as MAES or the NSCL, your packet may be shared with those units and input will be requested.

Operating Principles of the Tenure System:
http://www.hr.msu.edu/documents/facacadhandbooks/facultyhandbook/TenurePrinc.htm

Summary:
Provides principles regarding the start dates for probationary appointments, leaves of absence, notification of non-reappointment, appointments of foreign nationals, interpretation of the tenure rules and where tenure resides.

Granting Tenure
http://www.hr.msu.edu/documents/facacadhandbooks/facultyhandbook/granttenure.htm

Summary:
Faculty members appointed with the rank of Professor in the tenure system are granted tenure from the date of appointment.

Faculty members appointed as Associate Professors without tenure and who have served previously at MSU are appointed in the tenure system for a probationary period of, generally, two to five (2-5) years.

A newly appointed Associate Professor can be granted tenure from the date of appointment.

Faculty members appointed as an Assistant Professor are appointed for an initial probationary period of four years and may be reappointed for an additional probationary period of three years.

Reassigning Tenured Faculty
http://hr.msu.edu/documents/facacadhandbooks/facultyhandbook/facultyreassign.htm

Summary:
Tenure at MSU resides in the University. Thus, if a unit is discontinued, reassignment of the faculty is normally in another academic unit and is negotiated with the faculty member and the receiving unit.

Stopping the Tenure Clock
Implementation Practices:
http://www.hr.msu.edu/documents/facacadhandbooks/facultyhandbook/implementation.htm

Summary:
Provides reasons for automatic, one-year extension of probationary appointments and information about the process for requests of extensions for other reasons.
Post Tenure Review
http://www.hr.msu.edu/documents/facacadhandbooks/facultyhandbook/posttenure.htm

Summary:
There is not a distinct university process for post tenure review, although many colleges have post tenure review policies. The post tenure review process can result in a plan which leads to increased productivity or enhanced professional achievement by the faculty member. Depending on the outcome of the plan, the process can result in disciplinary action, including dismissal.

Faculty Handbook Policies:
- Policy and Procedure for Implementing Disciplinary Action Where Dismissal is Not Sought Provides causes for discipline, the process, and possible disciplinary actions.
  http://www.hr.msu.edu/documents/facacadhandbooks/facultyhandbook/Disciplinary.htm
- Dismissal of Tenured Faculty for Cause
  Provides grounds for dismissal and the stages of the process.

Appointment, Reappointment, Tenure and Promotion Recommendations Policies:
http://www.hr.msu.edu/documents/facacadhandbooks/facultyhandbook/recommendations.htm

Summary:
Handbook outlines the process initiated at the unit level, based on both peer review of candidates and unit standards for performance. Candidates are reviewed at the college and university levels; these reviews are based on explicit unit criteria and quality evaluations, consistent with college and university policies and goals. Recommendations can be positive or negative for: reappointment of an Assistant Professor for a second probationary period; reappointment of a tenure-system, untenured Associate Professor with the award of tenure; promotion of Assistant Professor to Associate Professor with the award of tenure; promotion of an Associate Professor to Professor. An overview of the standards for such recommendations is presented.

Tenure Action and Promotion:
http://www.hr.msu.edu/documents/facacadhandbooks/facultyhandbook/tenureaction.htm

This section includes an overview of the extensive information needed to evaluate faculty performance for tenure action and promotion. Expectations for action are unit specific and dependent on an individual's particular assignment.
College-Level Reappointment, Promotion and Tenure Committee Policies:
http://www.hr.msu.edu/documents/facacadhandbooks/facultyhandbook/reapptTenure.htm

Summary:

University Policy

Each college is required to establish a college-level reappointment, promotion and tenure committee that is charged to provide advice to the dean about department/school recommendations for reappointment, promotion and tenure. Deans are responsible for personnel matters in her or his respective college, taking into account the college's advisory procedures. College-level reappointment, promotion and tenure committees provide input to the dean in making reappointment, promotion and tenure decisions.

Principles

Each college must include in its written materials rules governing the reappointment, promotion, and tenure process, a procedure for establishing a college-level reappointment, promotion and tenure review committee, including methods for selecting committee members and how the committee will function.

Guidelines for Academic Unit Peer Review Committee Composition
http://www.hr.msu.edu/documents/facacadhandbooks/facultyhandbook/peerReviewUnit.htm

Summary:

Each unit establishes procedures to provide peer review advice to unit administrators regarding recommendations for academic personnel actions, including merit salary increases. The unit bylaws should indicate the designated group(s) to whom recommendations regarding reappointment, tenure and promotion should be made. Guidelines for Peer Reviews Committee Composition are outlined.

External Letters of Reference
http://www.hr.msu.edu/documents/facacadhandbooks/facultyhandbook/refLetters.htm

Summary:

External letters of reference are required for all reviews involving the granting of tenure or promotion. Some units require external letters for reappointment. Practices may vary by unit, but the principles of soliciting letters of reference are outlined.

Policies regarding the Confidentiality of Letters of Reference:
http://www.hr.msu.edu/documents/facacadhandbooks/facultyhandbook/tenureRecommend.htm

Summary:

In soliciting letters of reference a specific statement of confidentiality MUST be included in the request. The suggested wording of the statement is listed in faculty handbook reference above.
Evaluation of Non-Tenured Faculty in the Tenure System Policies:
http://www.hr.msu.edu/documents/facacadhandbooks/facultyhandbook/nontenured.htm
